

Educational opportunity for RNs

St. Luke's Regional Nursing Summit

The "Advances" Series: Education for Today's Nursing Community

Advances in Nursing:
New Approaches in Pelvic Health and Bariatric Surgery
Saturday, November 6, 2010, 7:50 am to 12:30 pm
Doors open for participant registration at 7 am

DeSales University, 2755 Station Avenue, Center Valley, PA 18034

St. Luke's Hospital & Health Network physicians and nurses have collaborated to bring you the third in a series of educational opportunities for nursing professionals throughout our community.

- Minimally Invasive Pelvic Reconstructive Surgery for Pelvic Organ Prolapse and St. Luke's Limited Guarantee
Urogynecologist Vincent Lucente, MD
Division Director of Gynecology; Section Chief of Urogynecology
And Pelvic Reconstruction, St. Luke's Hospital & Health Network
- Care of the Pelvic Reconstructive Surgery Patient
Robin Haff, RN, BSN, Director of Women's Health Research Division,
St. Luke's Hospital & Health Network
- The Medical Management of Incontinence
Urogynecologist Valerie Riley, MD, St. Luke's Center for Pelvic Health
- Care of the Patient With Incontinence
Adrienne Byrnes, RN, CURN, Manager, St. Luke's Center for Pelvic Health
- Understanding Bariatric Surgery
Board-certified bariatric surgeons Dr. Leonardo Claros and Dr. Maher El Chaar
Co-Medical Directors, St. Luke's Bariatric Surgery Program
- Plastic Surgery and the Bariatric Patient
Plastic surgeon W. Michael Morrissey, MD
Section Chief of Plastic Surgery, St. Luke's Hospital & Health Network
- Care of the Bariatric Surgery Patient
Maureen Miletics, RN, BSN, MS, CBN, Director, St. Luke's Bariatric Surgery Program
- My Best Decision—A Bariatric Success Story
Patient testimonial: A personal perspective with Terri Davis, RN
St. Luke's Bariatric Program Coordinator

Non-refundable registration fee of $50.

Pre-registration is required. Contact Paula Behler at 610-954-4125 or behlerp@slhn.org.

Registered Nurses who attend the entire program will be awarded 4 hours of continuing education credit for re-licensure.

