

A Season to Give Back

One of the most powerful ways to brighten your outlook is to set aside some time to list all the things you're grateful for. It's a wonderful exercise, and pretty soon you'll be smiling as you recall the many good things in your life.

The stories below are concrete reminders of how gratitude changes lives. From a gift that has helped bring life-saving care to Warren County, to making holiday wishes come true for families in need, to a group of motorcycle enthusiasts who are working to make sick children smile—there is so much to be thankful for when we pause and count our blessings.

Thank you for all you have done for St. Luke's. We're so fortunate to have you in our family.

Honoring "Home"

When Mike Perrucci's parents needed extra care toward the end of their lives, doctors from St. Luke's Warren Campus made house calls, walking across the parking lot to visit them in their nearby home. Inspired by the compassionate care his mom and dad received, Mike and his wife Christine chose to make a special $1 million naming gift that would transform the care provided to Phillipsburg's most critically ill patients. Five years later, that gift is saving lives.

Winter Wishes

It doesn't feel like winter yet, but snow is right around the corner. And with it, the holiday season—and an opportunity to help children and first-time mothers through the St. Luke's Nurse-Family Partnership (NFP) program. Watch our update video to see how our St. Luke's nurses adapted to care for these special families during the COVID-19 pandemic. If you're inspired by what you see, please consider a gift to Winter Wishes to help spread some extra joy during the holidays.

Ten Years for Tucker's Toy Run

"Hearing the roar of the bikes is so exciting... it never gets old," says Pat Gubich, St. Luke's Patient Care Manager for Pediatrics, speaking about Tucker's Toy Run, an annual motorcycle ride honoring the memory of Tucker Stuart. Each year, hundreds of bikers work together to bring smiles to the faces of our youngest St. Luke's patients.

Big Strides in Small Towns

Like so many rural areas, Carbon and Schuylkill Counties have long suffered from physician shortages, forcing patients to travel far for care. Thanks to a growing residency training program and more than $3 million in special support, St. Luke's is working to bring more doctors to underserved areas.
