
Over 30 St. Luke’s locations provide necessary medical care and treatment for sports injuries, including Sports Medicine/Primary Care offices, St. Luke’s Care Now walk-in care centers and emergency rooms.

Over 75 youth programs and organizations trust St. Luke’s Sports Medicine to provide Sports Medicine coverage for 15,000+ athletes, including the 5-Star Heart Program, Yasso/Rothrock Christmas CHY Classic, VIA, the Lions Club and many more.

As part of its mission to provide injury awareness and education, along with safeguarding the health of young athletes, St. Luke’s partners with two youth safety organizations, including the Youth Sports Safety Alliance and STOP Sports Injuries.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

St. Luke’s is the region’s largest Sports Medicine provider covering more than 100,000 athletes in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

St. Luke’s is first in the state to offer an Athletic Training Residency Program and routinely provides educational opportunities onsite for Athletic Trainers.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

Five priority educational offerings are available to athletes, coaches, parents and administrators, including programs on:
• Concussion
• Heat and hydration
• Environmental awareness
• Cardiac concerns
• First Aid/CPR/AED

St. Luke’s is the region’s largest Sports Medicine provider covering more than 100,000 athletes in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

St. Luke’s is first in the state to offer an Athletic Training Residency Program and routinely provides educational opportunities onsite for Athletic Trainers.

St. Luke’s is the region’s largest Sports Medicine provider covering more than 100,000 athletes in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

Five priority educational offerings are available to athletes, coaches, parents and administrators, including programs on:
• Concussion
• Heat and hydration
• Environmental awareness
• Cardiac concerns
• First Aid/CPR/AED

Over 75 youth programs and organizations trust St. Luke’s Sports Medicine to provide Sports Medicine coverage for 15,000+ athletes, including the 5-Star Heart Program, Yasso/Rothrock Christmas CHY Classic, VIA, the Lions Club and many more.

As part of its mission to provide injury awareness and education, along with safeguarding the health of young athletes, St. Luke’s partners with two youth safety organizations, including the Youth Sports Safety Alliance and STOP Sports Injuries.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

Five priority educational offerings are available to athletes, coaches, parents and administrators, including programs on:
• Concussion
• Heat and hydration
• Environmental awareness
• Cardiac concerns
• First Aid/CPR/AED

Over 75 youth programs and organizations trust St. Luke’s Sports Medicine to provide Sports Medicine coverage for 15,000+ athletes, including the 5-Star Heart Program, Yasso/Rothrock Christmas CHY Classic, VIA, the Lions Club and many more.

As part of its mission to provide injury awareness and education, along with safeguarding the health of young athletes, St. Luke’s partners with two youth safety organizations, including the Youth Sports Safety Alliance and STOP Sports Injuries.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

Five priority educational offerings are available to athletes, coaches, parents and administrators, including programs on:
• Concussion
• Heat and hydration
• Environmental awareness
• Cardiac concerns
• First Aid/CPR/AED

Over 75 youth programs and organizations trust St. Luke’s Sports Medicine to provide Sports Medicine coverage for 15,000+ athletes, including the 5-Star Heart Program, Yasso/Rothrock Christmas CHY Classic, VIA, the Lions Club and many more.

As part of its mission to provide injury awareness and education, along with safeguarding the health of young athletes, St. Luke’s partners with two youth safety organizations, including the Youth Sports Safety Alliance and STOP Sports Injuries.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

Five priority educational offerings are available to athletes, coaches, parents and administrators, including programs on:
• Concussion
• Heat and hydration
• Environmental awareness
• Cardiac concerns
• First Aid/CPR/AED

Over 75 youth programs and organizations trust St. Luke’s Sports Medicine to provide Sports Medicine coverage for 15,000+ athletes, including the 5-Star Heart Program, Yasso/Rothrock Christmas CHY Classic, VIA, the Lions Club and many more.

As part of its mission to provide injury awareness and education, along with safeguarding the health of young athletes, St. Luke’s partners with two youth safety organizations, including the Youth Sports Safety Alliance and STOP Sports Injuries.

Eighty-eight board-certified and licensed athletic trainers and growing, the most in the region. In fact, 81% of St. Luke’s athletic trainers are Master’s and/or Residency trained.

Five priority educational offerings are available to athletes, coaches, parents and administrators, including programs on:
• Concussion
• Heat and hydration
• Environmental awareness
• Cardiac concerns
• First Aid/CPR/AED

Over 75 youth programs and organizations trust St. Luke’s Sports Medicine to provide Sports Medicine coverage for 15,000+ athletes, including the 5-Star Heart Program, Yasso/Rothrock Christmas CHY Classic, VIA, the Lions Club and many more.

As part of its mission to provide injury awareness and education, along with safeguarding the health of young athletes, St. Luke’s partners with two youth safety organizations, including the Youth Sports Safety Alliance and STOP Sports Injuries.